Hi folks. I am Alan Watt and this is Cutting Through The Matrix on Christmas day. I just thought I'd give a few words, not long, just a few words to wish you all a Merry Christmas.

Thank goodness we got through another year of this hell of a planet because we are certainly watching a brand new system come into play, a very old system, at least the planning of it was very, very old and we are living through it. We are living through the history and the changes, the massive upheavals, as we go along. But we have come through and that's always the big surprise isn't it, at the end of the year. We know there are tough times ahead for everyone, as brand new measures, austerity and all this stuff, gets foisted upon the public; again, another great scam in history but there's been so many scams in history you lose count of them eventually.

But if we can all pull together at least we have our sanity. And that's the only thing we can really try and keep a hold of today, is our sanity, as we get told so much nonsense and so much psychology is used on the general population worldwide and the massive media propaganda that goes in to work, to mislead us on almost every topic.

So, here is to ourselves, and here is to our health, and each other, and to fighting on for another year. Let's hope... let's hope we can all come through, unscathed, as best as possible.

I've also put in a couple of small songs which I did today, just quick ones, not really polished because I just ran through them; they are first timers, first-offs, and they are good enough because they are free for ya. Enjoy them and have a Merry Christmas.
